THIS WEEK IN THE KITCHEN GARDEN

BAROOGA “FOUR SEASONS” WINTER MARKET

Another busy week ahead before Mrs Birds return this Friday, just in time for the monster Barooga Winter Market, this Saturday, 28th June. Remember if your child is willing to help, they need to return the permission note by this Wednesday 25th June. Also if you have any baked goods to donate they are always much appreciated. These can be dropped off at the market on the day or left at school the day before.

GREETINGS FROM THE GARDEN

In the garden this week we are concentrating on garden maintenance. Weeding, topping some gardens with manure and continuing with covering areas and paths with bark chips. We are also planting some ‘retro, country chic’ pots which will be sold at the market. The year 5/6 class will hopefully finish their garden projects which will add to the objects and designs already completed by Years 3, 4, and 5. All these little projects will hopefully add character, interest and enjoyment to the garden.

THIS WEEK’S MENU

Our last week of cooking for the term sees another mouth-watering menu. Mini pizzas garnished with our beautiful, iron packed baby spinach, tasty garlic and a sprinkling of cheese. Gnocchi-Small puffs of potato gnocchi served with a pumpkin, leek and sage sauce, accompanied by home-made flat breads made using Greek yoghurt and fresh herbs. Finishing with rice pudding with a pureed rhubarb compote.

Market produce: rum balls and tasty biscuits that have been very popular with the students, staff and helpers over the term.

Thanks again to all those families who have donated manure, hay and compost to the garden and of course to those individuals who have turned up each week to help in the kitchen. We all appreciate your time and effort.

Hope to see you at the Market on Saturday enjoying all our goodies.
